Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Larry S. Nixon on April 17, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In Claim 14, line 2: delete "trhee" and insert --three--;

In Claim 14, line 14: between "as" and "synchronously" insert --to--.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest an MRI system where three or more slices are excited in an alternating and interleaved pattern while the object being imaged is continuously moved, and where the three or more imaging regions synchronously track the movement of the object. Additionally, the present invention is distinguished from the prior art in that plural slices are not excited one at a time as they move through the imaging volume, but are repeatedly excited using the alternating and interleaved technique such that multiple slices are imaged in the imaging volume at the same time.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
